Dear Church Family,

Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus through your service, love and prayers for our family during our time of loss. We are trusting in the sovereignty of our God, and although we don't understand everything, we know that in all this, the glory belongs to God because He was working for Trevor's good. We are blessed beyond measure.

SERMON NOTES
Dining with Jesus in the Upper Room
Matthew 26:17-30

Just before his betrayal and crucifixion, Jesus sat with his disciples in the upper room for the Passover meal. As they ate together, he gave them bread and wine which would become an eternal reminder that he is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

- ◆ The meal was a reminder of something PAST.
- ◆ The meal was a declaration of something PRESENT.
- ◆ The meal was a promise of something FUTURE.

By observing the Passover and instituting the Lord’s Supper,
Jesus revealed himself as the Messiah Who Saves!
